WIDOW AND DISABLED WOMEN MINISTRY

Restoring Hope, Dignity & Lives

PROPOSAL

For Partnership & Support

2026

Prepared By:

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Nyawino Widow and Disabled Women Ministry is a Christian faith-based initiative dedicated to restoring hope, dignity, and self-reliance among widows and disabled women through compassion, empowerment, and the love of God.

The ministry exists to respond to the social, emotional, spiritual, and economic challenges experienced by vulnerable women in our communities. Through partnerships with churches, organizations, community leaders, and well-wishers, we seek to empower these women to live productive and dignified lives.

BACKGROUND

Nyawino Widow and Disabled Women Ministry was born from a deeply personal journey. Having lost my father at a very young age, my mother became a widow and single-handedly carried the responsibility of raising our family. Despite numerous hardships, she remained resilient, faithful, and determined to provide for us. Her unwavering strength became my greatest inspiration.

As I grew older, I realized that many widows and disabled women continue to endure poverty, loneliness, neglect, discrimination, and limited access to opportunities. Their daily struggles ignited a burden in my heart and became the foundation upon which this ministry was established.

Today, Nyawino Widow and Disabled Women Ministry exists to extend God's love through practical service, compassion, empowerment, and hope.

VISION

To restore hope, dignity, and self-reliance among widows and disabled women in our communities through compassion, empowerment, and the love of God.

MISSION

To bring hope to widows and disabled women by providing spiritual encouragement, emotional support, practical assistance, and opportunities for empowerment that enable them to live with dignity and purpose.

THE NEED

Many widows and disabled women face challenges such as:

- Poverty and food insecurity
- Lack of income and employment opportunities
- Social isolation and loneliness
- Emotional trauma and grief
- Discrimination and stigma
- Limited access to healthcare and essential services

Without intervention, these challenges continue to trap many families in cycles of dependency and hopelessness.

Our Objectives

Our ministry seeks to:

- Provide spiritual, emotional, and social support.
- Promote economic empowerment through vocational skills and income-generating activities.
- Offer practical assistance such as food, clothing, and essential household items whenever resources allow.
- Build confidence, leadership, and self-reliance.
- Create support networks that foster belonging and encouragement.
- Partner with churches, government agencies, NGOs, businesses, and well-wishers.
- Promote inclusion, dignity, respect, and equal opportunities.

Program Areas

Spiritual Care

- Prayer meetings
- Bible studies
- Counseling
- Home visits

Economic Empowerment

Expected Impact

Through this initiative we envision:

- Restored hope among vulnerable women.
- Improved household incomes.
- Increased self-confidence and independence.
- Stronger community support systems.
- Better emotional and spiritual well-being.
- Reduced stigma toward widows and persons living with disabilities.

OUR COMMITMENT

Nyawino Widow and Disabled Women Ministry is committed to restoring hope where there is despair, bringing comfort where there is pain, and empowering widows and disabled women to live fulfilling and dignified lives.

Guided by Christian values of love, compassion, integrity, humility, and service, we believe that together we can transform lives, strengthen families, and build caring communities.
